Dear Parents,

Our Jr. High Environmental Elective class would like to adopt an endangered animal and would like to include the entire school in selecting this animal. The endangered animal that they are interested in adopting is a polar bear or rhino. Beginning tomorrow, March 24th, students can cast their vote for their favorite animal by placing coin(s) - penny, nickel, dime or quarter in the labeled animal jugs that are placed outside the office. On Thursday, March 30th, the coins will be collected and counted. The animal with the most votes will be the winner. The winner and adoption will take place right after Spring Break. Thank you for your help with this endangered animal adoption.

Jeans Day

We will be having a jeans day on Friday, March 31st. Please refer to the Student Handbook on out of uniform guidelines. We are accepting donations that will be donated to Camp Kesem. Camp Kesem is a nationwide camp that supports children during a parent's cancer treatment and beyond. There are over 5 million children affected by a parent's cancer. Camp Kesem is the only national non-profit organization that dedicates themselves to this unique population of children. Please consider making a donation to this wonderful camp if you are able.
